

Adopted: January 7, 1992

ACADEMIC SENATE
OF
CALIFORNIA POLYTECHNIC STATE UNIVERSITY
San Luis Obispo, California

AS-374-92/C&BC
RESOLUTION ON REINSTATEMENT OF SENATORS

WHEREAS, A senator is automatically resigned due to missing more than two consecutive Academic Senate meetings substitute or proxy; and

WHEREAS, The Bylaws of the Academic Senate require a simple majority vote of the Academic Senate to reinstate an automatically resigned senator; and

WHEREAS, The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate is capable of performing this task without involvement of the entire Academic Senate; therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That Article II.F. of the Bylaws of the Academic Senate be changed as follows:

F. Automatic Resignations

Any senator missing more than two consecutive Senate meetings without a substitute or proxy shall be automatically resigned from the Senate at its regular meeting and shall be reinstated if any appeal for reinstatement is upheld by ~~a simple majority of those senators present~~ the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate.

Proposed by: The
Academic Senate
Constitution and Bylaw:
Committee
December 3, 1991

State of California

MEMORANDUM

Date: January 29, 1992

Copies: Robert Koob (w/atts)

To: Warren J. Baker
President

From: Charles T. Andrews, Chair
Academic Senate

Subject: Academic Senate Proceedings, January 7, 1992
RESOLUTIONS AS-372-92/C&BC, AS-373-92/C&BC, AS-374-92/C&BC

The Academic Senate approved the above-entitled resolutions at its meetings of January 7, 1992. These resolutions, requiring Academic Senate bylaw changes, are being submitted for your information only:

RESOLUTION ON FULL-TIME ACADEMIC EMPLOYEES AS-372-92/C&BC

RESOLUTION ON ACADEMIC SENATE BYLAW
RELATING TO VACANT POSITIONS AS-373-92/C&BC

RESOLUTION ON REINSTATEMENT OF SENATORS AS-374-92/C&BC