

Adopted: February 11, 1997

ACADEMIC SENATE
OF
CALIFORNIA POLYTECHNIC STATE UNIVERSITY
San Luis Obispo, California

AS-473-97/IC
RESOLUTION ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SUMMER ADVISING PROGRAM COMMITTEE

- WHEREAS, Recent surveys have identified a definite concern on the part of students regarding the availability and effectiveness of student advising; and
- WHEREAS, The Visionary Pragmatism report recommends that the University "offer proactive, consistent and accurate advising throughout the student's undergraduate experience:" and
- WHEREAS, The Summer Advising Program has provided a valuable opportunity for new students to take the MAPE test, meet with faculty and continuing students in their majors, learn about CAPTURE, gain familiarity with the Cal Poly Catalog and Schedule of Classes, schedule Fall Quarter classes, and develop a tentative first-year course of study; and
- WHEREAS, This important advising program currently lacks a formal organizational structure and is therefore at risk of discontinuance; be it therefore
- RESOLVED, That the Academic Senate shall recommend that a formal Summer Advising Committee be established as a University-wide committee reporting to the Provost, with membership drawn from each College Advising Center, the College of Agriculture, Student Academic Services, Enrollment Support Services, Housing and Residential Life, and Student Life and Activities; and, be it further
- RESOLVED, That the Summer Advising Committee will work in close cooperation with the Task Force on Student Advising until the latter completes its charge.
