Exams

The plan is to have two midterms (the first on xxxx) and a final on Monday, Dec 7 @ 4 pm

Homework

the problem assignments will be announced in class and posted on the web page

Some of the test problems will come from the assignments

Feel free to work with classmates, and to ask me questions, but the work you hand in should be your own

Physics Learning Center

a good place to get some help - in room A3 - open 9-2, most days

Final Grade

Will be determined using the approximate weighting:

Midterms -- 22% each

Homework -- 14%

Final -- 42%
