

COMMUNICATION STUDIES MINOR INFORMATION SHEET

A 28-unit minor is available for students who desire a supplemental academic program that documents competency in Communication Studies. After completing 16 units of core required courses, students choose an additional 12 units of elective courses from an approved list, of which at least 8 units must be at the 300-400 level. Courses not on the approved list may count toward the elective total with the approval of the minor advisor. No more than 4 units may come from supervised instruction courses (COMS 400, COMS 450, COMS 485).

Students who choose to complete the Communication Studies minor should schedule a preliminary conference with the minor advisor. Following initial consultation, the student must complete and sign the Communication Studies Minor Agreement Form, which also requires the signature of the minor advisor and the department chair.
