2022 Poly Royal Rodeo Celebrates 80 Years of History at Cal Poly

The 80th annual Poly Royal Rodeo is returning to its roots to commemorate eight decades of history at the Cotton Rosser Rodeo Complex. The Poly Royal Rodeo Finals will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, April 9, and will be followed by a concert by a headlining country music band, which will be announced soon. Tickets go on sale March 1. The Poly Royal Rodeo is the marquee event on campus during Open House. The event will feature the top collegiate rodeo athletes from around the West Coast who have advanced to the championship performance from the weekend's earlier rounds. Athletes will compete for a championship title in events such as barrel racing, team roping, breakaway roping, tie down roping, saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bull riding and steer wrestling. "This is our big comeback event," Coach Ben Londo said. "These students have been working hard behind the scenes for the last two years while COVID-19 precautions limited their ability to compete. Now, they get to shine."

Nominations Open for the 2021-22 Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award

The Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award recognizes a faculty member who has had a positive influence on students through academic advising. The award recipient will receive a $2,000 cash stipend and be recognized by President Armstrong at Fall Conference. One faculty member is recognized annually. The nomination should describe the nominee's academic advising services, activities and interactions as distinct from the nominee's teaching responsibilities, as well as include any special activities that relate to student development. Faculty, staff and current students are eligible to nominate faculty for this award. However, at least one submission must come from a current student, and no self-nominations will be recognized. Nominations will close at 5 p.m. Monday, Feb. 28. More information and a link to the nomination form is available at <https://advising.calpoly.edu/content/nominate-faculty-advisor>. Questions? Contact Shelly Wolf at scwolf@calpoly.edu.

Nominations Due March 18 for Provost's Leadership Award for Partnership in Philanthropy

Nominations are being accepted for the Provost's Leadership Award for Partnership in Philanthropy. This award celebrates visionary leaders who have forged critical partnerships to advance the mission of Cal Poly. Nominees may be current or former faculty members who have been instrumental in comprehensive development and fundraising efforts. The award recipient will be recognized at Fall Convocation. Faculty and staff are encouraged to submit nominations, which are due by March 18. The nomination form and more information are available at <https://provost.calpoly.edu/PLAPIP-Main>. Direct any questions to academicaffairs@calpoly.edu.

German and Russian Conversation Tables Open to All

Grab lunch and head to Kennedy Library to practice your language skills, learn more about German and Russian cultures, and meet new friends. The German Conversation Table occurs every other Thursday from 11:15 a.m. to noon with upcoming events on March 3 and 17 on the steps in front of Kennedy Library. The Russian Language Conversation Table meets every other Wednesday from 11:10 a.m. to noon with upcoming events on March 2 and 16 in Room 220C on the second floor of Kennedy Library. Email Angelica Browne at anbrowne@calpoly.edu for more information.

Boosters Available on Campus

Need a booster? COVID-19 vaccine and boosters are available Wednesdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Feb. 18 in the Recreation Center Main Gym Lobby (No. 43, Room 101). Vaccines will be administered by Rite Aid. The clinics are walk-in only. Visit <https://coronavirus.calpoly.edu/covid-19-vaccine> for more information.

Mustang Shuttle Gets Extended Hours to Improve Service and Access Around Campus

Cal Poly community members now have more access to Mustang Shuttle with two additional hours of service and shuttles running past midnight. Mustang Shuttle, a free convenient shuttle service that gives students and employees a ride across campus every evening, is now available from 5:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. The change in schedule runs through the end of winter quarter. With the switch to Daylight Savings Time, the shuttle will run from 7 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. during spring quarter, effective March 28. Mustang Shuttle runs seven days a week with the last pickup leaving Kennedy Library at 12:10 a.m. The loop across campus will be covered by two shuttles running 10 minutes apart. To ensure that every Mustang can use the service, one of the shuttles is accessible to those with disabilities. Riders must show Cal Poly ID when boarding. For more information, visit <https://afd.calpoly.edu/parking/safetyprograms/>.

More Dining Venues and Plant-Based Choices Available

To better serve the Cal Poly community, Campus Dining introduced five more dining venues and added more vegan and vegetarian options across campus. Venues new to Cal Poly include Health Shack outside the Dexter building, which features acai bowls, pressed juices and other healthy selections; local vegetarian food truck Plant Ivy, which offers a variety of plant-based burgers with meat lovers in mind; and Market UU, a convenient grab-and-go spot on the first floor of the UU across from the Multicultural Center. In addition to these three newcomers, Campus Dining welcomed back campus favorites Julian's Café Bistro on the second floor of Kennedy Library and a special Chick-fil-A pop-up in PCV featuring a limited menu of classic items. The expanded plant-based options can be found with vegan and vegetarian icons on menus. Visit calpolydining.com for hours and menus for Cal Poly's nearly 30 restaurants.

Join Cal Poly Basketball for Faculty/Staff Appreciation on Feb. 22

As a sign of appreciation for everything faculty and staff members do for the university, Cal Poly Athletics is pleased to offer four free general admission tickets to the Cal Poly Men's Basketball game on Tuesday, Feb. 22. The Mustangs are playing CSU Bakersfield and tip-off is set for 7 p.m. in Mott Athletics Center. All faculty and staff can claim their four free tickets to the game by showing their Cal Poly ID at the Cal Poly Ticket Office or at the Mott Athletics Center Box Office on the day of the game. For more information or to purchase tickets to other games, visit www.gopoly.com.

Learn About the Impact of Physical Activity on Public Health

Eduardo Esteban Bustamante, director of the Healthy Kids Lab at the University of Illinois, Chicago, will give an in-person presentation on the impact of physical activity on public health from 11:10 a.m. to noon Thursday, Feb. 24, in the Education Building (No. 2), Room 213. Bustamante's research focuses on generating evidence-based lifestyle interventions that promote physical and mental health among children and families in underserved communities. The presentation is hosted by the Kinesiology and Public Health Department.
