Submissions Welcome for Outstanding Student Employee Recognition

National Student Employment Week is April 4-10. The Outstanding Student Employee of the Year Committee invites faculty and staff to nominate an outstanding student employee to be recognized for their contributions. One outstanding Student Employee of the Year and two runners up will be selected from the nominations and invited to a special lunch in their honor. The committee has simplified the nominating process by requiring a one-page submission letter highlighting the student's accomplishments. All student employees are eligible for consideration. Faculty and staff may nominate more than one student and may find the NACE core competencies fact sheet useful to assist with submissions. Recognition letters, preferably on department letterhead, are due to Financial Aid (financialaid@calpoly.edu or brollins@calpoly.edu) by Friday, Feb. 24. Questions? Contact Barbara Rollins at brollins@calpoly.edu.
