Tickets on Sale for Poly Royal Rodeo

Tickets are available for the 81st annual Poly Royal Rodeo, which will include three nights of action-packed performances at the Cotton Rosser Rodeo Complex on campus during Cal Poly's Open House. The two-night general admission events will begin Friday, April 14, with the annual Poly Royal Rodeo Performance, and conclude Saturday, April 15, with the Poly Royal Rodeo Finals. Both events start at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by a concert. In addition, a Cal Poly Rodeo Showcase and concert will be held for students only at a reduced cost on Wednesday, April 12. The Poly Royal Rodeo is the marquee event on campus during Open House. The event will feature the top collegiate rodeo athletes from around the West Coast who have advanced to the championship performance from the weekend's earlier rounds. All proceeds from the event will benefit the Cal Poly Rodeo Program. Learn more and get tickets: <https://cafes-rodeo.calpoly.edu/Poly-Royal-2023>.

Cal Poly Earns Sixth 'Most Promising Place to Work in Student Affairs' Recognition

ACPA-College Student Educators International and Diverse: Issues in Higher Education recently named Cal Poly one of the Most Promising Places to Work in Student Affairs for the sixth time. The university is among 27 institutions of higher learning to receive the honor in 2023. This year's honorees were recognized for their focus on workplace diversity, staffing practices and work environment, which includes key attributes like family friendliness, salary and benefits, and professional development opportunities. "I am once again honored to receive this award on behalf of our division because it is a direct reflection of our daily work to create a welcoming, inclusive environment," said Keith Humphrey, vice president for student affairs. "This award is possible because we have amazing staff who are motivated to help each other succeed through our shared values of teamwork, mutual respect and of course, our work in helping students achieve their goals."

Campus Invited to The Vibe: Open Mic Night and Poetry Slam on Feb. 25

The Vibe: Poetry Slam and Open Mic Night is an inaugural communitywide event hosted by the Black Student Union from 7-9 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, in the PAC Pavilion. The purpose of this event is to showcase and celebrate Black culture through spoken word and creative expression. Additionally, the BSU wants to create a safe space for members of the San Luis Obispo Black community, allies, and beyond to come together, share powerful stories and create community. The event is free and open to the public. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. One performer will take home a grand prize. Questions? Email Nailah DuBose at calpolybsu.president@gmail.com.

Support Mustangs Struggling with Food Insecurity through Feed Cal Poly

Feed Cal Poly makes it easy for all faculty, staff, students and supporters to donate to Mustangs in need. Food insecurity is a very real and persistent problem on campus. Support of the Cal Poly Basic Needs Initiative through donations to Feed Cal Poly helps ensure all Mustangs have access to the resources they need to succeed. The Feed Cal Poly website makes donating quick, easy and accessible, with no limit on donation size. Simply login and follow the steps. Students with dining memberships also have the option to donate unused dining dollars through the Mustang Meal Share Program. All donors will receive a receipt for tax purposes. Learn more at <https://calpolydining.com/nutrition/food-insecurity/mustang-meal-share>.

Celebrate Engineering This Week

The campus community is invited to Engineers Week (E-Week), a national celebration that shines a spotlight on engineering. It is a time to celebrate how engineers make a difference in the world, increase public dialogue about the need for engineers and bring engineering to life for students, educators and parents. Cal Poly's Engineering Student Council has organized a week of engineering events through Saturday, Feb. 25, ranging from Cal Poly Racing cars and coffee to sustainable energy trivia. Learn more and find the schedule at: <https://ceng.calpoly.edu/connection/2023/02/engineers-week-2023-upcoming-events-2/>.

In Memoriam

Renny Joel Avey, a longtime professor in the Agribusiness Department, passed away on Oct. 31, 2022. He was 75. Avey was born on August 20, 1947, in Burbank, California, to parents Lois and Clarence Avey. He grew up on Long Gulch Ranch in the Sierra Nevada Mountain range near Yosemite National Park and Groveland, California. It was on the ranch that he developed a lifelong passion for nature and a deep spiritual connection to the land. After high school, Avey completed his undergraduate studies at Cal Poly. He earned a master's degree at Oregon State University and a doctorate at the University of Hawaii. After completing his doctoral degree, he became a tenured professor of agricultural business at Cal Poly, where he taught for 34 years before retiring in 2007. He was well known and well loved in the department by administration, fellow teachers and students alike.
