Teach-In Moved to May 9
The eighth Social Justice Teach-In has been rescheduled to Thursday, May 9. The annual event is a daylong series of talks and workshops by and for the Cal Poly community, centered around equity and social justice. More than 50 workshops led by faculty, staff and students from across campus were selected from the proposals this year.

Employee Mortgage Assistance Program
Cal Poly Partners, formerly the Cal Poly Corporation, has launched a mortgage assistance program to help faculty and staff purchase a home on campus. Last October directors of the nonprofit approved an agreement with SESLOC Federal Credit Union to create the lending program framework for employees looking to purchase in the Bella Montana community off Highland Drive or the new Vista Meadows development at Slack Street and Grand Avenue. The program aims to help facilitate the sale with no down payment nor need for private mortgage insurance. Program. Questions? Email SESLOC representative Cherise Long at clong@sesloc.org for more details.
