Biological Sciences Professor Nishi Rajakaruna Named Fulbright U.S. Scholar Alumni

Biological sciences Professor Nishi Rajakaruna has been named a Fulbright U.S. Scholar Alumni Ambassador for 2024-26. The program is administered by the Institute of International Education in collaboration with the U.S. State Department's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Ambassadors serve as official program representatives and assist with outreach alongside campus scholar liaisons. Rajakaruna has received two Fulbright U.S. Scholar Awards, the first to his homeland Sri Lanka (2016-17) and another to South Africa (2022-23). Rajakaruna remains a strong advocate and welcomes colleagues interested in exploring this unique opportunity to connect with him about its impact and his experiences. "I'm excited to help galvanize interest in the program and look forward to the new possibilities for international collaboration this could bring to Cal Poly." Faculty interested in the program are invited to apply by Sept. 16.

Celebrate Cindy Villa's Retirement and Lasting Impact March 29; RSVP Today

After nine remarkable years of service at Cal Poly and countless accomplishments, Cindy Villa will embark on her retirement March 31. Throughout her tenure, Villa has spearheaded significant capital projects, including the renovation of 1901 Marketplace and Vista Grande, as well as the construction of the Frost Center for Research and Innovation and the Center for Wine and Viticulture.
