Call for Artists - Kennedy Library Mural Project

Cal Poly is seeking proposals from California-based artists to design a mural for the entrance of the newly transformed Kennedy Library, set to reopen in fall 2025. The “Main Entrance Mural Project” aims to transform the concrete wall in the main lobby into an artistic focal point, reflecting the library’s role as a hub for learning and community. The selected artist will be commissioned through donor funding, with installation scheduled for summer 2025. Proposals are due by March 20.
