Josh Machamer Appointed

Josh Machamer has been appointed assistant vice president of strategic initiatives. In this role, he will work closely with campus leadership to strengthen communication, coordination, and alignment of institutional priorities, initiatives, and projects. He will also play a key role in supporting presidential initiatives, including the Cal Maritime – Cal Poly integration. Josh brings valuable experience from his position as Associate Dean for Operations in the College of Liberal Arts, where he led several impactful student success and strategic planning efforts.

Cal Poly Made

Cal Poly's Food Science and Nutrition Department launched Cal Poly Chocolates in 2000. Now, 25 years later, it has been rebranded to Cal Poly Made to better represent all student-made products developed in the department. The Cal Poly Made website, www.calpolymade.com, offers bundles of sauces, jams and chocolates that can be mixed and matched to create a curated box of your favorite products — perfect for gifting yourself, family or friends. Nationwide delivery of products is available. All orders placed by 5 p.m. on Thursdays will be processed for shipment the following week. Order pick-up is also available at Bldg. 24 from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. Wednesdays.

Kennedy Library: Set to Reopen Fall 2025

Kennedy Library remains under construction and is on schedule to reopen during Week of Welcome. This spring, library collections and books will begin moving back into the building. The campus community may experience minor disruptions at temporary service points during the transition.

ASI Recreational Sports

Love the water? There are still spots open in Advanced Swim Courses and Personal Aquatics Training — perfect for swimmers looking to improve technique with personalized coaching. Have kids? Enroll them in Youth Swim Lessons for ages 4-16, where they'll learn in small groups with peers of similar skill levels and instructors tailored to their needs. More of a land-lover? Try Cardio Sport, one of ASI's newest fitness classes! This high-energy workout mimics a game-like experience with a follow-the-leader format set to motivating music.

Join Safer in Celebrating Denim Day – Wednesday, April 30

Denim Day grew out of a 1998 Italian Supreme Court decision that overturned a rape conviction because the survivor wore tight jeans. Enraged by the verdict, the women in the Italian Parliament protested by wearing jeans to work, which became an international symbol of protest against destructive attitudes and myths surrounding sexual assault. Join Safer by wearing denim on April 30 and share with your students and colleagues how your jeans protest violence!

ASI Employment Opportunities

New AI Resource for Cal Poly Launches April 28

Starting Monday, April 28, students, faculty and stateside staff can access the new ChatGPT Edu. This private version of ChatGPT is funded by the CSU Chancellor's Office for at least the next 18 months as part of the CSU AI initiative. Activity within ChatGPT Edu is confidential and not used to train OpenAI's public models. ChatGPT Edu is an optional resource to help streamline work, improve communication and simplify complex tasks. Training, guidance and policies for effective and ethical AI use are available on CSU's AI Commons and the Cal Poly ChatGPT Edu landing page. For questions or support, submit a ticket to the Support Center.

In Memoriam: Kay Perryman-Snow

Former Cal Poly faculty member Kay Perryman-Snow (also known as Elizabeth K. Perryman) died Feb. 10, 2025. A pioneering female biological sciences professor in Cal Poly's (Bailey) College of Science and Mathematics, Perryman-Snow served as an instructor between 1972-2007. Perryman-Snow funded the Sarah Perryman Memorial Scholarship in memory of her mother. A celebration of life service will be held at the Unitarian Universalists San Luis Obispo at 2201 Lawton Ave. at 2 p.m. April 26. Donations may be made in Perryman's memory to the Sarah Perryman Memorial Scholarship or to Woods Humane Animal Shelter in San Luis Obispo County.
