Cal Poly's Great Grads

To celebrate Commencement each year, Cal Poly highlights a group of "Great Grads" — a student from each of the university's six colleges who are completing their academic journey here and moving on to the next phase of their lives. This year, we explore the idea of the impact our graduates have had as students at Cal Poly or will have as professionals when they take their Learn by Doing experience into the world.

Faculty Promotion and Tenure

President Jeffrey D. Armstrong and Interim Provost and Executive Vice President Al Liddicoat have announced the promotion of 48 faculty members and the award of tenure to 22 faculty members effective in the 2025-26 academic year. The promotions include 28 to the academic rank of professor and 20 to the rank of associate professor or associate librarian. Armstrong and Liddicoat extend their congratulations and appreciation to those faculty members receiving promotion and/or tenure.

Cal Poly - Cal Maritime Integration Update

The administrative integration of Cal Poly and Cal Maritime will take place July 1, marking the beginning of the two campuses functioning as one university. This includes the appointment of new leadership: Dr. Corey Cook as CEO of Cal Poly Solano Campus, and Rear Admiral (Ret.) Eric C. Jones as superintendent of Cal Poly Maritime Academy. These leaders will guide strategic vision, academic excellence and integration efforts, advancing Learn by Doing and maritime education. We will continue the integration process throughout the coming academic year, and all students will become Cal Poly students in fall 2026.

Three Outstanding Staff Awardees to be Recognized at Fall Convocation

Three exemplary staff members have been selected to receive the 2024-25 Outstanding Staff Award: Dee Louie, recently retired assistant director of University Accounting and Reporting; Joe Johnston, senior university photographer in University Communications and Marketing; and Missi Allison-Bullock, director of ASI Programs and Services. The award, presented by the President's Office, honors staff members for their dedication and loyalty; expertise in job performance; willingness to assist others; initiative in making their department more efficient and productive; excellent relationships with coworkers, faculty and students; and their contributions to the university. The awardees will be recognized at Fall Convocation in September.

Over the summer Cal Poly Report will appear monthly: July 9 and Aug. 13.

The weekly report will return Sept. 17.

Cal Poly Women's Basketball Youth Camp

The Cal Poly Women's Basketball Program will host a youth camp for children entering first through eighth grade. Attendees will be taught the discipline and fundamentals of basketball by coaches and camp counselors, play fun games, earn prizes and make new friends. Camp will be held in Mott Gym every day June 23-26. Faculty and staff can use discount code "STAFF50" for $50 off the total fee.

How to 'Go Safely' On Campus During Commencement

As campus fills with graduates and supporters, Public Safety wants the campus community to be aware of how to Go Safely so that everyone can get to their destination. Here are some tips to help everyone get around safely:

- Wear comfortable shoes and get those steps in.
- Stay hydrated.
- If driving to campus, plan to carpool and arrive early.
- Use Highland Drive to access the Commencement parking lots.
- Commencement shuttles run from 7:15 am to 6:30 p.m.
- Leave electric scooters at home. Electric scooters, skateboards and other micro-mobility devices are not allowed on campus.

Cal Poly Cat Program Volunteers Needed

With summer approaching, many of the Cal Poly Cat Program student volunteers will be away and the shelter is looking for some extra help caring for the cats and kittens. From June 14 to Sept. 18, the program will seek community members to volunteer or foster. Volunteers help with daily care—cleaning cages and litterboxes, refreshing food and water and giving the kittens and cats some love. They are also looking for foster homes for kittens and cats; all expenses are covered, and short-term fostering options are available. It's a rewarding way to make a difference.

Technology Park Phase II Complete

The second building at the Cal Poly Technology Park is now complete, with tenants beginning to move in. The new 16,200-square-foot facility supports innovation, collaboration and growth, enhancing partnerships among students, faculty and industry across science, technology, engineering, mathematics and liberal studies (STEML). Long-term plans aim to expand the park into a 120,000-square-foot campus that unites students, faculty and strategic partners in an interdisciplinary environment. A ribbon-cutting ceremony is planned for winter 2026 to celebrate the facility's opening.

Save the Dates for Mustang Move-In

Campus will welcome new students to University Housing on Thursday-Friday, Sept. 11-12. Continuing students return Tuesday-Wednesday, Sept. 16-17. Please keep these dates in mind as you plan fall opening activities and meetings — campus roads and parking will be significantly impacted. University Housing invites you to join its crew of student leaders, faculty and staff who bring welcoming vibes to students as they start their journey at Cal Poly. Sign-ups open this summer.

What Capital Projects to Look Out for This Summer

As the academic year draws to a close, several capital projects will continue to make visible progress. This summer, work will continue on the student housing project, Vista Meadows, the John Madden Football Center and more. Construction will start on the Student Success Center and wrap up on Kennedy Library. With this construction, many parking spots will be brought back online and others will be taken offline. To help the Cal Poly community navigate campus this summer, a list of capital projects and affected roads and parking lots has been compiled into one convenient list.

Grad Gown Reuse Program

The vast majority of gowns are utilized once in a lifetime, for only a few hours. Cal Poly Green Campus's Grad Gown Reuse Program aims to make graduation more sustainable. Graduates are encouraged to donate their used gowns, caps, tassels, hoods, and cords, and Cal Poly will redistribute the gowns next year at no cost to students. After graduation, donation booths will be located at O'Neill Green through North Concessions. Graduates can also drop off or mail regalia to: Building 70, Room 117A, 1 Grand Ave., San Luis Obispo, CA, 93407

Robin Hood at the PAC on June 21-22

The legend of Robin Hood is brought to life by Ballet Theatre San Luis Obispo on June 21 and 22 at the Performing Arts Center. Step into the thrilling world of Sherwood Forest in a bold, action-packed ballet filled with heart, heroism and high adventure. This captivating production blends swashbuckling sword fights, quarterstaff duels, daring archery, dynamic dancing, lavish sets and exquisite period costumes for an unforgettable experience for the entire family.
