Light, Spacious and Bustling: Take a Look Inside a Refreshed Kennedy Library

After a two-year closure, the refreshed Robert E. Kennedy Library — the largest library between Santa Barbara and Santa Cruz — has reopened its doors and assumed its rightful spot as a hub of campus life. The space reopened in September 2025 after its first major remodel since it debuted in January 1981. The $78-million renovation improved accessibility, added classroom space, upgraded heating and cooling systems and expanded the on-site cafe — all while saving energy. The reimagined first floor holds two exhibit spaces for art and historical artifacts from Kennedy Library's Special Collections and Archives, the expanded Julian's Café and redesigned courtyard.
