Design Contest Open for 2027 Rose Parade Entry

Cal Poly Rose Float, fueled by a historic win on New Year's Day, is seeking design ideas for its entry in next year's 138th Rose Parade. There is no limit to the number of entries an individual can submit. The Rose Float leadership team — comprising about 60 students, equally split from Cal Poly and California State Polytechnic University, Pomona — will review the design concepts and vote on the winner. The deadline for submissions is 5 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 5. The lucky entry will provide the basis for the 2027 final design.

Harvest Lofts Now Offering Advance Leasing for Cal Poly Faculty and Staff

Harvest Lofts is now offering faculty and staff the opportunity to pre-lease housing up to three months in advance, providing added flexibility for prospective and incoming employees planning a move to Cal Poly. The community offers studios and one-bedroom apartments with modern amenities, including bike storage, optional onsite storage and access to The Harvest Club's resident-only clubhouse, pool and spa. Located just 10 minutes from campus, Harvest Lofts is designed for convenient, low-maintenance and comfortable living.

Faculty Liaison for Service-Learning: Office Hours

Service-Learning connects academic coursework with real-world community needs through community-based projects that deepen learning and social responsibility. Anurag Pande serves as Cal Poly's Faculty Liaison for Service-Learning and is available to support faculty interested in developing or redesigning courses with service-learning components. Faculty may contact him at service-learning@calpoly.edu. In-person office hours will be held Winter 2026 on Mondays, 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., in Kennedy Library (Bldg. 35, Room 319C, International Center).

Semester Kickstart, Formerly Quarter Plus, Offers Academic Opportunities for First-Year Students

With Cal Poly's transition to the semester system, Quarter Plus evolved while continuing its tradition of helping first-year students acclimate to college life. While the program's mission and structure remain the same, Semester Kickstart now launches in mid-July, allowing students to build momentum before the academic year begins. Participants complete two courses for academic credit, develop essential college study skills, and form meaningful connections with peers and mentors — all while becoming familiar with campus life in San Luis Obispo. Semester Kickstart offers a focused, immersive start that prepares students for long-term academic success.

University Art Gallery Presents 'Local Print' Jan. 29 to March 13

An opening reception for "Local Print" will be held Jan. 29 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the University Art Gallery. "Local Print" is a pop-up workshop about Risography and its role in advancing print in a digital age. The Riso printer was first launched in Japan in 1980, designed for inexpensive but high-volume printing using environmentally friendly, soy-based inks. Since then, it has become a catalyst for a thriving community of artists, graphic designers, printmakers, zinesters and publishers who value its hands-on operation and "perfectly imperfect" aesthetic of vibrant, saturated colors that is unlike any other printing process.

SLO Symphony Presents 'Romance and Fire' Feb. 7

SLO Symphony presents "Romance and Fire" on Saturday, Feb. 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center in Harold Miossi Hall. Immerse yourself in a night of sweeping romance and heroic grandeur with pianist Salome Jordania performing Schumann's "Piano Concerto in A Minor," Sibelius' "Symphony No. 2 in D major" and Beethoven's "Egmont Overture" from a side-by-side with the SLO Youth Symphony. This event has a student-and-youth discount available.

Did Your Dependent Apply to Cal Poly? Complete the Dependent Inquiry Form by Jan. 31.

If you are a full-time faculty or staff member and your dependent (spouse, child or stepchild) applied to Cal Poly, please complete the Faculty / Staff Dependent Inquiry Form (if you haven't already done so) by Jan. 31 to receive additional consideration. Questions? Please email admissions@calpoly.edu.

PolyProfile Update Now Live in My Cal Poly Portal

PolyProfile has a refreshed look and a new home! The platform is now fully integrated into the My Cal Poly Portal, where it appears as a default tab on the portal landing page for all students and faculty and staff with security access. Links previously located on the right-hand side of PolyProfile have been embedded directly within the page, creating a cleaner, more seamless user experience. While the interface has been updated, all PolyProfile functionality remains the same, ensuring continuity for users who rely on the platform.
