Cal Poly Student Awarded Critical Language Scholarship to Study in Latvia

Jasper Burgard, an international strategy and security major at the Cal Poly Solano Campus, has been awarded a Critical Language Scholarship (CLS), a nationally competitive program with a 7% acceptance rate in 2026. Currently studying abroad in Kazakhstan, Burgard is Cal Poly Maritime Academy's first-ever CLS recipient and only the fifth from Cal Poly overall. This summer, he will study advanced Russian in Daugavpils, Latvia. Burgard plans to apply his language and analytical skills to security research on the Baltic region and to a future career as a United States Marine Corps officer.

Faculty Advisor Semester Readiness Events

University Advising and Office of the Registrar are pleased to offer two semester readiness events for faculty advisors on Friday, April 17, 2026.

For questions, please contact Christina Wolfe-Chandler at crwolfe@calpoly.edu.

Reminder: Faculty and Staff Invited to Share Input on Housing Needs

Cal Poly Partners is inviting faculty and staff to complete a survey about current housing needs and preferences. Feedback will help inform potential housing opportunities for the campus community. The survey will assess current housing situations, preferences and interest in for-sale or rental units. Participation is voluntary, and responses will remain confidential, with results reported in aggregate to help inform the vision and long-term objectives for future housing initiatives. Learn more about faculty and staff housing and join the interest list on the Faculty and Staff Housing webpage.
