Water Infrastructure Project Reaches Major Milestone

Cal Poly's $14 million Water Infrastructure and Improvement Project (WIIP) reached a major milestone this month as a new reservoir, water line, pumphouse and controls system came online. WIIP replaces the aging 1-million-gallon Reservoir 1 with a new 2.1-million-gallon reservoir, adding more than 1 million gallons of storage capacity. Located below the Poly P and above the North Mountain residence halls, the new system also includes a pumping station, redundant transmission line and upgraded energy-efficient electrical and control systems. The improvements increase water capacity, improve fire flow compliance and strengthen system resiliency to support future campus growth.

Cal Poly Cat Program Says Goodbye to Sanctuary Cat Kiwi

Beloved shelter cat Kiwi crossed the Rainbow Bridge earlier this month after more than 12 years with the Cal Poly Cat Program. Often called "King" of the shelter, Kiwi served as an ambassador for the program, welcoming new cats, kittens and volunteers to campus each year. Kiwi came to the shelter in July 2014 after being shot with a BB gun. His injuries required constant care, so he became a long-term resident. We loved caring for this sweet-natured boy over the years. We're accepting donations in his honor. Mark "in memory of" and designate Kiwi. New fosters are also welcome.

Bella Horne Named 2026 Women Offshore Horizon Award Honoree

Junior maritime transportation Bella Horne received the 2026 Women Offshore Horizon Award, bestowed by the Women Offshore Organization during its annual convention in Houston. The honor is presented to students, cadets and maritime professionals with fewer than five years of experience who are already making a positive impact while inspiring those around them. Also recognized was alumna and Women Offshore Conference keynote speaker Captain Kate McCue received the Wave Maker Award, honoring an individual who made a lasting impact on careers at sea through mentorship, leadership and a commitment to creating opportunities for others.
